

The duties children owe their parents — reverence, consent, obedience, and the recompense owed to age — and then the parents’ own: love and prayer, nursing and nurture, teaching and correction, and the settling of a child in a calling and a marriage.

“Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.”

— Ephesians 5:21

Of Domestical Duties Volume III | William Gouge

Of Domestical Duties

VOLUME III

The Fifth and Sixth Treatises: Of Children and Parents

WILLIAM GOUGE